

Parents as Partners in Early Learning

Parents are children's first and most enduring educators. When parents and practitioners work together in Early Years settings, the results have a positive impact on children's development and learning. Please click on the links below to watch videos from the Parents as Partners in Early Learning DVD. The DVD is split into 5 short programmes.

- 1. Talking, listening, learning – how parents, carers and practitioners can get involved in children's early learning, both at home and in the local community.
<http://nationalstrategies.standards.dcsf.gov.uk/node/151080>
- 2. Learning with dad – how fathers and male carers can get involved with their children's learning right from the beginning.
<http://nationalstrategies.standards.dcsf.gov.uk/node/151289>
- 3. Places to go – examples of places where children can have fun and learn outside their own home, and how parents and practitioners can work together.
<http://nationalstrategies.standards.dcsf.gov.uk/node/151298>
- 4. Parents talk – about the real, everyday challenges of bringing up young families, and how getting more involved has made a difference.
<http://nationalstrategies.standards.dcsf.gov.uk/node/151090>
- 5. Where can I find out more? – where parents and carers can go to find out more about early learning and caring for young children, and how they can get involved. <http://nationalstrategies.standards.dcsf.gov.uk/node/151099>